

You've got to be kidding me. You are about to let a handful of large corporations own an even bigger slice of media? Where's my freedom of the press without diversity? I need access to all available opinions. You guys should be breaking these monopolies up not allowing them to become larger. It's un-American and as far as I'm concerned, it's the act of traitors trying to destroy my free press. You should be ashamed of yourselves for even thinking about it.
